

ANGEL CAPITAL ASSOCIATION

Use ACA to Fuel Successful Angel Investments

Smart, professional and successful angel investors know that it takes a team to ensure that investments are strategic and portfolio companies have the best opportunity for successful exits. With more than 13,000+ active angel investors including 240 angel groups and platforms, and deep partnerships with angel investing research organizations, Angel Capital Association can help you build and execute a winning investment strategy.

Seven Smart Ways to Leverage Your ACA Membership

1. Learn from other experienced angel investors while you network and exchange ideas at the ACA Summit and ACA Angel Insights Exchange and regional meetings. Members receive discounts.
2. Put your ACA angel connections to use with the ACA members only directory, then expand deal flow, syndicate deals or invest in specific industries with ACA sector groups. Free to ACA members.
3. Stay on top of best practices and trends through bi-monthly ACA webinars, weekly eNews, Blog posts and trending conversations on the ACA LinkedIn Group and Twitter feeds. Free to ACA members.
4. Use the ACA Knowledge Center to get investment answers including reports and topical presentations presented by members-for members, in addition to angel investing industry data and analysis. Free to members.
5. Take advantage of ACA-only discounts through ACA service partners and sponsors including deeply discounted access to workflow platforms and access to webinar and industry data tools for groups and portfolio companies, and many others (see partner handout for current offers).
6. Benefit from ACA representation in the halls of Congress and regulatory agencies on issues that affect American angel investing. In addition receive early information and actionable tools to make it easy to share your views with legislators and regulators.
7. Build your angel investing team and toolkit by using ACA resources to meet, learn from and connect to experienced and active angels that are dealing with the same issues, questions, concerns, challenges as you.

The most important added bonus—Remember, all members of ACA groups are automatically ACA members with access to all member benefits!

The Angel Capital Association is a great place for angels to get smart and get smart fast through amazing meetings and sharing of best practices and the wisdom of angel groups.
