Draft Term Sheet for Alliance of Angels

This draft term sheet, by Dan Rosen, CEO Dan Rosen & Associates, is for use by Alliance of Angels members as a starting point in negotiating seed stage deals. The AoA lead investor is noted as <<AoA Investors>> in the document. Each party in such deals should seek appropriate legal counsel. Except for the section titled “Exclusivity,” this term sheet does not create a legally binding obligation on any person or entity.

Company name: Acme, Inc
Location: <<Company Address>>
Type of Entity: Washington State Corporation
Type of Equity: Series A Preferred Stock
Size of Offering: $750,000
Minimum to close: $500,000
Closing: On <<Date>> (“the Closing Date”) or when minimum to close is committed

Valuation
Pre-money: $2,000,000
Post-money: $2,750,000
Price per share: $1.0256

Investors: Various members of the Alliance of Angels, who are Accredited Investors acting on their own account, and/or other Accredited Investors only (as defined in SEC Rule 501)

Comment [DR1]: Some prefer Delaware incorporation. Washington state and Delaware have parallel laws, but Delaware has greater case law and therefore better protection for company Directors.
Comment [DR2]: At times, Angels are asked to buy either common stock or S-Corp stock. Common makes sense in a limited situation: where an experienced entrepreneur has put lots of their own money into a company and you trust (based on experience with that individual) that they will treat investors well. S Corps cannot give preferred shares and should be avoided.
Comment [DR3]: Might also want to specify a latest close date for the round. If not met, it forces the company to come back to investors.
Investor Incentives

Investors who invest by the Closing Date will receive the following incentive:

Discount or Warrants

- 25% Warrant Coverage

Stock Options

The company will increase the authorized pool of options prior to the financing to bring the total unallocated options to at least the following percent:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Total Unallocated options</th>
<th>24% in the post money</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>New options issued</td>
<td>200,000</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Pre and Post-Financing Capitalization (assuming all shares issued)

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Type of stock</th>
<th>Pre-Financing Number of shares</th>
<th>% Fully Diluted</th>
<th>Post Financing Number of shares</th>
<th>% Fully Diluted</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Common Stock Options</td>
<td>1,000,000</td>
<td>51%</td>
<td>1,000,000</td>
<td>35%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Granted</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Pre-financing Stock Options Avail</td>
<td>250,000</td>
<td>13%</td>
<td>250,000</td>
<td>9%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>New Stock Options</td>
<td>500,000</td>
<td>26%</td>
<td>500,000</td>
<td>17%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Series A Pfd Stock Warrants</td>
<td>200,000</td>
<td>10%</td>
<td>731,250</td>
<td>26%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>182,813</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>6%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Total Shares</td>
<td>1,950,000</td>
<td>100%</td>
<td>2,864,063</td>
<td>100%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Comment [DR4]: Discounts or Warrants are an incentive to invest. If granted, it is almost always one or the other, but not both. They must be considered with the price per share as to their reasonableness to current market conditions. It is, of course, cleaner to just lower the price per share, but often there are reasons (e.g. a higher priced friends and family round) not to do so.

Comment [DR5]: With warrant coverage, the post money will technically be higher than the pre-money plus the amount invested, because these shares are issued. In reality, given that the warrants are usually priced the same as the shares issued, they are “out of the money” and therefore do not actually affect the post money.

Comment [DR6]: The unallocated option pool depends largely on the state of the company’s current management team and positions that still need to be filled. This usually ranges from about 10% to 25%, and must be considered in the post-money cap table, not the pre-money cap table.

Comment [DR7]: Note that the post money price is more than the pre-money + new money, because of the warrants, which go into the post.
Terms of the Series A Stock

Liquidation Preference

1x participating preferred. The Series A Preferred shall receive an amount equal to one times (1x) the Purchase Price, plus any declared and unpaid dividends, prior to the payment of any sums to any other equity security holders in the event of (i) a liquidation, dissolution, or winding up of the Company; or (ii) “Change in Control,” which means a merger or consolidation (other than one in which the stockholders of the Company own a majority by voting power of the outstanding shares of the surviving or acquiring corporation) and a sale, lease, transfer, or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company. Thereafter, all of the proceeds shall be ratably distributed to the holders of Preferred and Common Stock, on an as converted basis.

Dividends

Dividends only when declared, and not cumulative. The holders of Series A Preferred will be entitled to receive dividends only when and if declared by the Board and in preference to holders of Common Stock.

Voting Rights

Except as set forth in “Protective Provisions” below, the Series A Preferred shall vote together with the Common Stock on an as converted to Common Stock basis, and not as a separate class.

Board Participation

The holders of a majority of the Series A Preferred shall be entitled to elect one member of the board of directors, who shall initially be 1 at the time of the closing of this financing, the board of directors shall be 5 members: 1 from management, 1 from Series A and 3 independent directors acceptable to both common and Series A directors. The Series A director shall be compensated with stock options on a standard basis.

D&O Insurance

Prior to the closing, the company shall obtain a Directors & Officers insurance policy that is at least $1M.

Comment [DR8]: In the past, it was often argued that Angels should not request 1x participating preferred without a cap, because larger follow-on rounds would then get the same. While a small angel round doesn’t change the “liquidation overhang,” a large VC round might. Capping the liquidation preference in future larger rounds does make sense.

Comment [DR9]: In the past, it was often argued that Angels should not request 1x participating preferred without a cap, because larger follow-on rounds would then get the same. While a small angel round doesn’t change the “liquidation overhang,” a large VC round might. Capping the liquidation preference in future larger rounds does make sense.

Comment [DR10]: Cumulative dividends do make sense in the case of a redemption provision, as outlined below.

Comment [DR11]: Depending on the circumstances, having all of the directors selected by the closing might not be possible. This could read that within XXX days of closing, with the agreement of the Series A director, this can be delayed.

Comment [DR12]: Note that five is an arbitrary number and should be adjusted to the circumstances. The goal is to provide excellent guidance to the entrepreneur and bring the investors’ knowledge to bear. Often an initial board of 3 is sufficient.

Comment [DR13]: It is also reasonable that the Series A director be on compensation committee and must agree to executive compensation.

Comment [DR14]: This amount is a minimum, but generally adequate for a seed stage company. If there is a large amount of investment, real property, or intellectual property, it should be more.

Comment [DR15]: This amount is a minimum, but generally adequate for a seed stage company. If there is a large amount of investment, real property, or intellectual property, it should be more.
Conversion Rights

The holders of the Series A Preferred shall have the right to convert the Series A Preferred into shares of Common Stock at any time. The initial conversion rate for the Series A Preferred shall be 1-for-1, subject to adjustment as indicated below.

Automatic Conversion

The Series A Preferred shall automatically be converted into Common Stock, at the then applicable conversion rate, upon: (i) the closing of a firmly underwritten public offering of not less than $25,000,000 (before payment of underwriters' discounts and commissions) (a "Qualified IPO"); or (ii) the written consent of holders of the majority of the outstanding preferred stock.

Antidilution Rights

Broad based weighted average. The conversion price of the Series A Preferred will be subject to proportional adjustment for stock splits, stock dividends, and the like, and to adjustment on a broad-based weighted average basis for issuances at a purchase price less than the then-effective conversion price, subject to customary exclusions.

Founder’s Stock Right of Repurchase

Common stock owned by any founder with more than 2% of the post-financing equity is subject to the right of repurchase by the company at the lower of (a) the fair market value (FMV) at the time of agreement or the FMV at the time of repurchase; or (b) $0.01 per share (if no FMV has been determined), if the founder leaves the company within the first four years. Such a right expires over four years on a monthly basis after the Initial Closing (2.083% per month for 48 months).

Protective Provisions

The consent of the holders of a majority of the outstanding Series A Preferred shall be required to: (i) amend the Articles of Incorporation in a manner that would alter, change, or repeal any of the rights, preferences, privileges or restrictions of the Series A Preferred so as to adversely affect the Series A Preferred (it being understood that the authorization or issuance of shares of a new series of preferred stock that is senior to or pari passu with the Series A Preferred will not be deemed to adversely affect the Series A Preferred if the rights, preferences, privileges or restrictions of the Series A Preferred are not otherwise affected); (ii) increase the total number of authorized shares of Series A Preferred by more than 10%; (iii) approve a sale or merger of the Company.

Drag Along

If the Company’s Board of Directors and a majority-in-interest of the Rights

holders of Series A Preferred and Common approve a Change of Control Transaction or issuing New Securities, each Holder agrees (i) to vote all shares held by such Holder in favor of such Change Control Transaction or issuing New Securities, and (ii) to sell or exchange all shares of Common Stock then held by such Holder pursuant to the terms and conditions of such a transaction.

Registration Rights

The holders of Series A Preferred will be entitled to receive registration rights pari passu with and substantially the same as any registration rights granted to holders of equity securities of the Company in the next round of financing of the Company.

Rights of First Offer

Keep pro rata share. Each Investor who purchases at least $25,000 of Series A Preferred will have a right of first offer, subject to certain limitations, to purchase its pro rata portion of any new equity securities offered by the Company, subject to standard exclusions. The right of first offer will terminate immediately prior to the earliest to occur of: (i) the Company's initial public offering; (ii) such time as the Company otherwise becomes subject to the reporting provisions of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended; or (ii) a Change in Control. This right expires for any investor who does not exercise this right at each opportunity.

Proprietary Information and Inventions Agreements

The Company will cause each person previously, now, or hereafter employed or engaged as a consultant to enter into an acceptable proprietary information and inventions agreement.

Information Rights

The Company will share with the <<AoA Investors>> (i) audited annual financial statements no later than 90 days after the end of each fiscal year, (ii) unaudited quarterly financial statements no later than 45 days after the end of each quarter and a comparison of such quarter’s results with the results projected by the Company’s annual budget, (iii) unaudited monthly financial statements no later than 30 days after the end of each month and a comparison of such quarter’s results with the results projected by the Company’s annual budget, and (iv) an annual budget for the upcoming fiscal year promptly following approval by the Board. <<AoA Investors>> will be entitled to standard rights to inspect the properties and the books and records of the Company at reasonable times and upon reasonable notice to the Company. The obligation of the Company to furnish such information and to permit such inspection will terminate at the earliest of such time as the Company consummates a Qualified IPO, becomes subject to mandatory reporting requirements, or is acquired by another entity and then terminates at the earliest of such time as the Company consummates a Qualified IPO, becomes subject to mandatory reporting requirements, or is acquired by another entity.

Comment [DR18]: In order to ensure flexibility and rapid decision making, once a majority of the common and preferred A shareholders agree to a decision, getting the others to agree is a meaningless exercise. So, notification, rather than the complete vote is all that is required. This term can be important in WA law, where if not otherwise specified, the number is 2/3 and not a simple majority.

Comment [DR19]: In order to ensure flexibility and rapid decision making, once a majority of the common and preferred A shareholders agree to a decision, getting the others to agree is a meaningless exercise. So, notification, rather than the complete vote is all that is required. This term can be important in WA law, where if not otherwise specified, the number is 2/3 and not a simple majority.

Comment [DR21]: Best practice is that the Company CEO sends out a quarterly letter or holds a meeting with investors at least quarterly to update them on progress, plans, and future financings. General rule – no surprises.

Comment [DR22]: Audits can be expensive, especially for a company that is early in its development. It is OK to allow the board to waive this requirement for a period of time.

Comment [DR23]: Audits can be expensive, especially for a company that is early in its development. It is OK to allow the board to waive this requirement for a period of time.

Comment [DR24]: Some favor making this 120 days to save money.
to the reporting provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or the closing of a Change of Control.

Investor’s Counsel

Company agrees to pay $5,000 (or $5,000 per each $1M, or fraction thereof, raised) for Investors’ Counsel expenses to review this term sheet and ensure that the final agreement reflects the terms agreed.

Redemption Rights [used only if the Company is or might be a “lifestyle business”]

After five years, if not previously converted, the Series A Preferred Stock is to be redeemed in three equal successive annual installments beginning <<Date>>. Redemption will be at the purchase price plus a <<4-12%>>% per annum cumulative return.

Due Diligence

The transactions contemplated by this Term Sheet are subject to the satisfactory completion of due diligence by each Investor.

Expiration of Letter:

This letter expires at 5 p.m., Pacific Daylight Time, <<Date>>, unless the Company executes it below and returns an original or faxed executed version to <<AoA Investors>> by that time.

Exclusivity:

From the date of acceptance of this Memorandum of Terms until the earliest to occur of (a) consummation of the financing, (b) the formal termination of negotiation by both <<AoA Investors>> and Company or (c) <<Date>>, the Company will not directly or indirectly solicit, initiate or participate in any discussions or negotiations with, or encourage or respond to any inquiries or proposals by any persons, company or group other than the Investors, concerning any financing or sale of the Company without prior approval of <<AoA Investors>>. The Company will promptly notify <<AoA Investors>> if any person, company or group seeks to initiate any other discussions or negotiations and contemplated in the immediately preceding paragraph, makes any proposal or inquiry, or requests any information with respect to any proposed financing or sale of the Company.

Confidentiality:

This term sheet is confidential to the parties and is for the use of the Company’s management and their advisors. Accordingly, the information contained in this document may not be disclosed to any third party or used... to facilitate negotiations with any third party without <<AoA Investor>>’s and the Company’s prior approval.

Not an Offer

This Term Sheet is not a complete description of the financing and does not constitute either an offer to sell or an offer to purchase securities.

---

On Behalf of the Company:

__________________________
Name of Company
__________________________
Signature
__________________________
Name
__________________________
Phone
__________________________
Email

On Behalf of the Investors:

__________________________
Investor Group (if applicable)
__________________________
Signature
__________________________
Name
__________________________
Phone
__________________________
Email