

ANGEL CAPITAL ASSOCIATION

Provide ACA Access to Your Members

Feel free to use the following prompts to provide your members access to their ACA member benefits. ACA staff is also available should you have any questions and/or need assistance:

Provide Automatic Access to Angels including Angel Education Focus:

(The language below requires that you separately provide the new member's contact information to ACA for follow-up or copy Heather Krejci when you send this note.)

Congratulations on recently becoming a member of ANGEL GROUP We are looking forward to onboarding you as quickly as possible so you can participate in our next round of investment opportunities.

You will be receiving an email from Heather Krejci at the Angel Capital Association providing you access to the ACA member resources. This is a great benefit to receive as a member of ANGELGROUP.

If you are new to Angel Investing and would like a primer or an experienced investor with questions, we recommend the following ACA webinars archives and related materials. Use your new ACA member login for access:

1. Beginner's Guide to Term Sheets
2. Best Practice Series: Angel Portfolio Strategy
3. What Angel Investors Can Expect for Returns
4. After the Check is Written: 7 Tactics that Increase the Chance of Returns
5. The Basics of Cap Tables

Invite Angel Members to Access Benefits:

1)

As a member of ANGEL GROUP you are invited to take advantage of your membership benefits to the Angel Capital Association. ACA provides angel development resources, networking and investing events, timely industry updates and a voice for all angels in Washington, DC.

With access, you may use investor tools and resources in the Members Only Knowledge Center and stay current with updates on the latest angel investing trends via member events, regional and sector calls, weekly @ACA E-news and the ACA webinar series.

Be sure to sign up for access for these and more opportunities to connect to your ACA member network.

ANGEL GROUP belongs to the Angel Capital Association, the professional association for accredited angel investors across North America. Since we belong to ACA, all of our members are also considered to be ACA members with no cost to you. Feel free to take advantage of ACA's benefits for angels, including a $300 discount to their annual conference (April 18-20 in Boston), free access to great educational webinars, a weekly newsletter, reports on public policy issues of importance to angels, tons of information in the ACA Knowledge Center, and connections to other great angels for ideas and sharing deals. If you would like these benefits, please sign up here: <https://www.angelcapitalassociation.org/request-access/>. ACA will keep your name confidential.
